DEVEREAUX, SIMON PETER

Peter Devereaux and Emma Mallette were married in 1896 in Vancleave at her parents' home and moved into Richard Devereaux's home (Peter's grandfather).

Peter was a carpenter by trade, but while in Vancleave, he formed and burned charcoal that was loaded on a schooner and shipped to New Orleans.

They moved to Moss Point in 1919 and lived on the River Road until 1945.

Mr. Devereaux worked for Dantzler Saw Mill on the River Road for many years as a planer and maintenance man. Also some time was spent at the Barge Yard and the City of Moss Point, putting in most of the sidewalks. Later he worked at the Woolen Mill on Jefferson Street.

Peter and Emma were active in the Dantzler Methodist Church and Sunday School with their children. They had two sons and four daughters.

Peter was very talented with his hands and loved to make lawn furniture, chairs with wide arms and to paint them lovely bright colors. His grandchildren still remember the tasty rice puddings he would make, the best in the county.

Emma made quilts that are still cherished by the family and loved working in her flower beds. The two sycamore trees she planted as a bride are still growing in Vancleave.

Peter and Emma Devereaux are buried side by side in the Antioch Cemetery in Vancleave next to the Antioch Baptist Church.
